

Faculty Credentialing

The Southern Association of Colleges and Schools (SACS) is the accreditation body for the University of South Florida. SACS has established the minimum requirements for a faculty member to be credentialed to teach a course at the University.

Eff. 4/16/2010