

Florida Center for INCLUSIVE COMMUNITIES

Innovations in Developmental Disabilities

Cultural Competence Considerations in Serving Communities and Families of Children with Disabilities

Presenters:

Mario Hernandez
Department Chair
Child and Family Studies

Many funders have elevated the importance of cultural competence as we conduct our research and practice in school, community, and family settings.

Grab your lunch and join us for this very important seminar!

February 23, 2011
11:30-12:45
Westside C

*Dr. Mario Hernandez is Professor and Chair of the Department of Child and Family Studies at the Louis de la Parte Florida Mental Health Institute, within the College of Behavioral and Community Sciences at the University of South Florida. Dr. Hernandez has co-edited two books, Promoting Cultural Competence in Children's Mental Health Services (1998) and Developing Overcome Strategies in Children's Mental Health (2001). Dr. Hernandez has also published articles and book chapters on developing outcome strategies for children's mental health, cultural competence and in applying logic models to support community change efforts.*

Florida Center for Inclusive Communities
Department of Child & Family Studies • Louis de la Parte Florida Mental Health Institute
College of Behavioral and Community Sciences • University of South Florida

813-974-3126 • Toll-free: 1-866-818-4797 • www.flcic.org