

College of Behavioral & Community Sciences

Fall 2011 Instructional Enhancement Series

Open to all faculty, staff, instructors, and graduate teaching assistants.

“Ensuring Accessibility For Students with Disabilities - What Faculty Need to Know!”

Presented by

Deborah McCarthy,

Director of Students with Disabilities Services

Accessible environments are a communal responsibility. Learn what you can do in the classroom, in a presentation, in your department or on campus in general to help promote accessibility. The presenter will also address services offered by the Students with Disabilities Services office, the concept of universal design, and faculty/instructor responsibilities.

Friday, October 7th

10:00-11:00 am

Westside - A

Please RSVP to Patty Cleveland (cleveland@usf.edu) by September 30, 2011 as space is limited for each workshop.