

College of Behavioral & Community Sciences

Fall 2011 Instructional Enhancement Series

Open to all faculty, staff, instructors, and graduate teaching assistants.

“Cultural Learning Styles Encountered in the College Classroom”

Presented by

Dr. Teresa Nesman

Department of Child & Family Studies

This seminar will provide an opportunity to explore different cultural learning styles that might be encountered in your classes. It will also present guidelines and examples of culturally competent adaptations that promote engagement and success for students from a variety of backgrounds.

Thursday, October 13

10:00-11:00 am

MHC 1503

Please RSVP to Patty Cleveland (cleveland@usf.edu) by October 7, 2011 as space is limited for each workshop.