

Florida Center for INCLUSIVE COMMUNITIES

Innovations in Developmental Disabilities

Young Adults with Autism Spectrum Disorders Speak Frankly About Life After High School

Presenters:

Ari Levine, Michael Stimach, and Jenna Lonsdale
Susan Richmond, M.Ed
Megan Fitzpatrick, MSW

Tuesday, November 15, 2011
11:30-12:30, MHC Atrium Lobby

DESCRIPTION:

Three panelists with autism spectrum disorders will discuss their perspectives on independence, employment, post-secondary education, and social life as they move into adulthood.

PRESENTERS:

Ari Levine, Michael Stimach, and Jenna Lonsdale are students at the Center for Autism and Related Disabilities' Learning Academy.

Megan Fitzpatrick works as an Instructor/Consultant with CARD and the Learning Academy in supporting young adults with Autism Spectrum Disorders and their families transition from high school to adulthood.

Susan Richmond is the Coordinator of the Learning Academy at USF and the Learning Academy Employment Services. She is also a CARD consultant for adult services.

Florida Center for Inclusive Communities
Department of Child & Family Studies • Louis de la Parte Florida Mental Health Institute
College of Behavioral and Community Sciences • University of South Florida

813-974-3126 • Toll-free: 1-866-818-4797 • www.flcic.org