

TRADITIONAL MEDICINE IN HAITI: IMPLICATIONS FOR U.S.-BASED HEALTH AND POLICY DEVELOPMENT

Prof. J. Calixte Clérismé

L'Université d'Etat d'Haiti

Director, Centre de Recherche pour le Développement, Pétion Ville, Haiti

Professor Clérismé has published over 150 research reports on Haitian traditional medicine in relation to hidden health practices and health. His work has been funded by USAID, John Snow Foundation, Robert Wood Johnson Foundation, the World Bank and others.

DATE: TUESDAY, OCTOBER 23, 2012

LOCATION: EDUCATION, EDU 317

TIME: 11:00 A.M. – 12:20 P.M.

Sponsored by: University of South Florida * Anthropology * Community & Family Health * Criminology * Mental Health Law & Policy * Social Work

